

CURRICULUM VITAE
SHERI SCHNEIDMAN CORNING, PH.D.

EDUCATION

SCHOOL	DATES	MAJOR	DEGREE
Baylor College of Medicine	9-82 – 8/83	Clinical Internship
Auburn University	4-81 – 8-82	Clinical Psychology	Ph.D. 6-84
Auburn University	9-78 – 3-81	Clinical Psychology	M.S.
Auburn University	8-74 – 5-78	Psychology	B.A. (Summa Cum Laude)

CLINICAL EXPERIENCE

Private Practice: August 1983 to Present

Provide individual, couples and family counseling to children, adolescents and adults. Assessments (personality, intellectual and attention deficit disorder) to all populations. Court ordered problems including custody, parent coordinating and divorce.

Baylor College of Medicine

APA approved predoctoral clinical internship – August 1982 to August 1983. Rotations included:

Ben Taub General Hospital: Psychological assessment, individual and group psychotherapy, emergency psychiatry, and consultation and liaison with low socioeconomic inpatients and outpatients.

Texas Children's Hospital: Psychological assessment, individual and family psychotherapy with outpatients. Worked primarily with children and adolescents

Baylor Psychiatry Clinic: Individual, couple and group psychotherapy

Crosby Independent School District, Crosby, Texas: Consultant with duties including psychological assessment of children and consultation/liaison with teachers and administrators.

Auburn University Research and Training Clinic: Psychology Department, Auburn University, Alabama: September 1980 to August 1982.

Psychological assessment batteries for intellectual and personality assessment, and individual, couple and family psychotherapy
Worked primarily with children and adolescents

East Alabama Mental Health Center: Youth and Family Services, Alexander City and Dadeville, Alabama September 1981 to August 1982.

Psychological assessment and individual, family and group psychotherapy
Worked primarily with children and adolescents

Lee County Youth Development Center: Opelika Alabama March 1982 to June 1982
Psychological assessment of adolescent inpatients

East Alabama Mental Health Center: Substance Abuse Service, Opelika, Alabama
January 1981 to September 1982
Individual Psychotherapy of adult outpatients

Veteran's Administration Hospital: Tuskegee, Alabama April 1981 to June 1982
Psychodiagnostic evaluations of adult inpatients

Head Start, Lee County: Auburn, Alabama September 1979 to August 1980
Mass screening of preschool children, psychological assessment, individual (child) psychotherapy, and consultation/liaison with teachers and administrators

Mesa Association for Retarded Citizens: Mesa, Arizona August 1977 to December 1977
Conducted modification program emphasizing social skills training with emotionally disturbed children

Arizona Training Program: Phoenix, Arizona March 1977 to December 1977
Designed, implemented and evaluated a behavioral program for inpatient, mentally retarded adolescents

RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

Arizona State University, Tempe, Arizona: June 1977 to May 1978
Research assistant
Collected, coded and analyzed data on alcohol abuse studies

Lincoln Elementary School, Phoenix Arizona: November 1976 to December 1976
Designed and implemented project on peer relationships in Mexican American children

Schneidman, S. & Zegiob, L.E.: Undergraduate Honor's Thesis, Arizona State University, 1978
The reactivity of self-monitoring procedures with institutionalized retarded subjects for prosocial behaviors

Schneidman, S: Master's Thesis, Auburn University, 1981
Reactive of self-monitoring and a discriminative stimulus on parental behavior during parent-child interactions

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Auburn University, Department of Psychology, September 1978:
Teaching Fellowship: Instructor of undergraduate psychology courses

PROFESSIONAL ASSOCIATIONS

American Psychological Association
Texas Psychological Association